Hi amigos, Firstly a big apology for the late delivery of the June issue due to production difficulties but we hope the Stonewall Jackson issue was worth the wait. In this issue we feature the Salute report by Guy Bowers with some inspirational photos. The games at Salute always give us some good ideas and set a high standard for us all to aim for!

We have had a good response to our Starting with..... Ancients series from both readers and the trade and will continue this with helpful ideas in the issues to come. It works whether you are just starting out or are moving from another period.

But enough from us enjoy the issue and get gaming!"
