December is finally here! Christmas, family, and tons of leaden gifts. As a friend of mine put it, "We wouldn't have enough time to paint it all even if we had five lifetimes!" Along with this final edition, we have published a dossier that is very special to us. Antonio Carrasco, the author, has been working on it for more than five months and it would never have come to light if it hadn't been for the outstanding pictures and settings that Randy Fung and Brian Lum Keogh sent us. We hope you like it!

Since this publisher is congratulating and thanking everyone, here goes one more. As many of you know, this magazine is sold outside of Spain so there is an English translator among us, her name is Suzanne. She has worked hard in the last few months due the tight deadlines that we sometimes have and I can assure you that she has done it well. It didn't take her long to learn the special terminology that is specific to this hobby. Along with the huge job included in this edition, we have to mention the invaluable help that we have received and of which I can not stop talking about. A few months ago, a subscriber got in contact with me because of an issue with his receiving the magazine. From our conversations, he proposed reading the entire translation in order to check the tiny errors in technical military terminology use. His name is Phil Venables. Thank you Phil for all your selfless help! Without further ado, I present this edition to you thanking our group in the UK. Without them, none of this would be possible. We hope you like it.

The Immortels de Paris-Ouest

We are the oldest wargame club in France, founded in 1979. We meet every Friday night at the Maison des Associations, 24 rue Pierre Brossolette in Levallois-Perret, from 8p.m. on. Our main interest is historical wargaming, in 10mm, 15mm and 28mm. All historical periods are well represented, with a strong bias for Ancients and Middle-Ages. Here's a purposely non-exhaustive list of the wargame rules we used this year : Fields of Glory, Warmaster Ancients, Pig wars, Warmachine, Blitzkrieg, This Very Ground, Might&Reason... If you're visiting Paris and want to know what gallic wargaming means, drop us an e-mail, we'll be glad to welcome you. Check your insurance policy before, though - it can be a dramatic experience indeed.

The Chelmsford Bunker

Essex Police Sports and Social club. St Margretts Road. Chelmsford. Essex. CM2 1DA. We meet Wednesdays, check the website for times and dates, and join the forum to arrange games. Currently playing all GW games, FOW, Warhammer Ancients and various boardgames. Contact. Gareth Williams cdgareth@fsmail.net
