Hello everyone and welcome to a new month! The holidays are over as are the hangovers and just as it's time for us to get back to our routine, our magazine is also back in the kiosks. While we've been preparing this edition we had been quite busy preparing Salute, which will take place one month earlier this year, at the end of March. (Take a look at the website so that there are no last minute surprises!)

This edition means one more year for us and there have been more than seven now! It is a point of pride for us to be able to continue publishing this magazine and each edition with all of its difficulties, headaches and setbacks but the truth is that when we see it printed, it's worth it all. It's true that some editions are better than others, perhaps because of the subject matter or the quality of the edition. (This is something we really do regret - if at any moment one of our editions was not up to par quality wise. We do everything possible so that it turns out well).

In this edition, we have a dossier of fantastic pictures that have been given to us from the people over at Cheemin de feu, a Classic Belgian club in Salute and who usually take home all the important awards for the best game boards. They are simply amazing!

Before I sign off, I can't let the opportunity slip away for me to send a big hug to one of our collaborators- he knows who he is...cheer up! And with this, I leave you this edition, we hope you like it!

The Immortels de Paris-Ouest

We are the oldest wargame club in France, founded in 1979. We meet every Friday night at the Maison des Associations, 24 rue Pierre Brossollette in Levallois-Perret, from 8p.m. on. Our main interest is historical wargaming, in 10mm, 15mm and 28mm. All historical periods are well represented, with a strong bias for Ancients and Middle-Ages. Here's a purposely non-exhaustive list of the wargame rules we used this year : Fields of Glory, Warmaster Ancients, Pig wars, Warmachine, Blitzkrieg, This Very Ground, Might&Reason... If you're visiting Paris and want to know what gallic wargaming means, drop us an e-mail, we'll be glad to welcome you. Check your insurance policy before, though - it can be a dramatic experience indeed.

The Chelmsford Bunker
