Leader

Here we are closing March's magazine and preparing a new visit to Salute. A short time ago, I came to substitute the previous director and my personal friend, David Gomez. I would like to thank him for his collaboration and the work he has done throughout these last few years.

I would like to work with the editor side by side and contribute new ideas that may improve the quality of WSS. In addition, I have been fortunate enough to have found a group of collaborators both in and out of the magazine that are making this first difficult task easier. As far as content goes, we are not going to make any big changes to the magazine format but we will try to improve on the points that have been generously pointed out to us by our readers. One of the items that we have given utmost importance is the input of our readers and their opinions on the content in each of the magazine's sections; something which we have already started working on. We would like ask you to send your ideas and opinions by e-mail. To start out, we have thought about adding a new section which will be kept depending on what our readers think of it. We would like for the magazine to continue growing which will allow us to grow quality wise while improving the articles and photographs.

We shall now turn to this issue to which I must add that I have only acted on as a coordinator due to the large amount of themes that needed to be finished for reasons that you will understand. We have tried to cover different eras. To start off, we have included the Roman invasion of Britannia in 43 A.D. in dossier format. We have also selected the Battle of the Coral Sea and a historical event of which little is known about from the Napoleonic era, the Taking of the Montgat Castle. This edition is going to be a good one as you will soon see.

Unfortunately, Dionisio Alvarez Cueto passed away and will always be remembered as a dear friend to this magazine. We have paid homage to Dionisio in this edition and we would like to take this moment to send a heartfelt message to his family and friends in their time of loss. With this, we close this edition with something David used to say when he was director: "We hope you enjoy the magazine as much as we enjoy preparing it for you".

The Immortels de Paris-Ouest

We are the oldest wargame club in France, founded in 1979. We meet every Friday night at the Maison des Associations, 24 rue Pierre Brossolette in Levallois-Perret, from 8p.m. on. Our main interest is historical wargaming, in 10mm, 15mm and 28mm. All historical periods are well represented, with a strong bias for Ancients and Middle-Ages. Here's a purposely non-exhaustive list of the wargame rules we used this year : Fields of Glory, Warmaster Ancients, Pig wars, Warmachine, Blitzkrieg, This Very Ground, Might&Reason... If you're visiting Paris and want to know what gallic wargaming means, drop us an e-mail, we'll be glad to welcome you. Check your insurance policy before, though - it can be a dramatic experience indeed.

The Chelmsford Bunker

Essex Police Sports and Social club. St Margretts Road. Chelmsford. Essex. CM2 1DA. We meet Wednesdays, check the website for times and dates, and join the forum to arrange games. Currently playing all GW games, FOW, Warhammer Ancients and various boardgames. Contact: Gareth Williams cdgareth@fsmail.net
