Well Salute is behind us and what wonderful inspiration it always is! Whether your primary aim is gaming or painting or even re-enactment or big boy's toys there is something to inspire. The main theme for this month's issue is the climatic and colourful battle of Blenheim authored by Matt Slade. Matt and his club will be presenting this as a game in the future and these club projects always make excellent Dossiers. Maybe there are other clubs out there with a potential Dossier? We'll love to hear from you if so. We also have contributions from James Clark on the Austro-Italian part of The Great War and also a small series from George Moraitis on one of Alexander's Successors. Lastly a report from Hamburg on the Tactica show and the fantastic games found there.

Happy gaming!

The Immortels de Paris-Ouest

We are the oldest wargame club in France, founded in 1979. We meet every Friday night at the Maison des Associations, 24 rue Pierre Brosolette in Levallois-Perret, from 8p.m. on. Our main interest is historical wargaming, in 10mm, 15mm and 28mm. All historical periods are well represented, with a strong bias for Ancients and Middle-Ages. Here's a purposely non-exhaustive list of the wargame rules we used this year : Fields of Glory, Warmaster Ancients, Pig wars, Warmachine, Blitzkrieg, This Very Ground, Might&Reason... If you're visiting Paris and want to know what gallic wargaming means, drop us an e-mail, we'll be glad to welcome you. Check your insurance policy before, though - it can be a dramatic experience indeed.

The Chelmsford Bunker

Essex Police Sports and Social club. St Margretts Road. Chelmsford. Essex. CM2 1DA. We meet Wednesdays, check the website for times and dates, and join the forum to arrange games. Currently playing all GW games, FOW, Warhammer Ancients and various boardgames. Contact. Gareth Williams cdgareth@fsmail.net
